By signing this Agreement, the Renter and/or Event Planner confirms that they have read, understood, and agree to comply with all terms and conditions contained herein. Renter is responsible for the conduct of all attendees, guests, vendors, contractors, service providers, and any other persons attending or involved in the Event. Any damage, loss, violation of this Agreement, or additional costs caused by such persons is deemed the responsibility of the Renter.

The Steelhead Community Association (SCA) may deduct from the Booking and Damage Deposit any reasonable costs arising from the Event, including but not limited to damages, repairs, additional cleaning beyond the basic cleaning of restrooms, missing items, policy violations, or other costs required to restore the Facility and Premises to their original condition they were at the time of Check-in. The Renter further acknowledges that the determination of such damage, violations, or additional cleaning requirements shall be made at the discretion of the Hall's management, acting reasonably, and that their decision regarding the full or partial return or forfeiture of the damage deposit shall be final. Management or volunteers are not required to be at Check-Out but will inspect the Hall and Premises as soon as practicable thereafter. Inspection findings including photographs, if deemed necessary, will be used to assess any reasonable deductions from the booking and damage deposit for repairs, loss, or extra cleaning. Deductions are deemed voluntary donations made in support of the SCA's Community Activities Program and Hall maintenance. Renter is liable for any & all fines that may arise during an Event from any source.

This Agreement grants the Renter a temporary licence to use the Hall and Premises for the scheduled date(s) and times for the Event listed on this Agreement only. It does not create a landlord-tenant relationship or any rights under the Residential Tenancy Act of British Columbia.

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the use of the Hall and Premises and supersedes all prior discussions or representations. This Agreement is the full understanding between the Renter and the SCA. Any changes must be made in writing and approved by the SCA in advance of the scheduled Event. The version in effect at the time of the scheduled Event governs the rental. Renter will receive a copy of the current version at Check-in or in advance by email. Failure to review and sign the current version may result in cancellation or denied access without refund.
